CURRICULUM OVERVIEW

What if you were born in the 1900s?

As READERS we will:

- Read 'The Phantom Tollbooth' by Norton Juster
- Explore fiction and non-fiction texts.
- Use inference to look for detail.
- Use think alouds to explore the text further and ask questions about our reading.

As AUTHORS we will:

- We will write for a range of purposes.
- Write a newspaper report in the style of the text.
- Write a letter to one of the characters.
- Write our own fiction stories.
- Write character profiles

As CITIZENS we will:

- Think about relationships.
- Develop relationships through work and play.
- Consider moral and social dilemmas that we come across in life.

As MATHEMATICIANS we will:

- Collect data.
- Interpret data.
- Use data in charts and graphs.
- Develop confidence in talk for maths.
- Continue to improve our speed in 10 minute maths.

As HISTORIANS we will:

- Think about forms of entertainment and leisure in our own lives then compare them to the past.
- Draw inferences and ask questions about artefacts.
- Find similarities and differences between time periods
- Plot recent history on a timeline using centuries
- Understand how items from the past help us to build up a picture of how people lived at the time

What if the world was silent?

As SCIENTISTS we will:

- identify how sounds are made, associating some of them with something vibrating
- recognise that vibrations from sounds travel through a medium to the ear
- find patterns between the pitch of a sound and features of the object that produced it
- find patterns between the volume of a sound and the strength of the vibrations that produced it
- recognise that sounds get fainter as the distance from the sound source increases

As experts in FRENCH we will:

- Listen attentively to spoken language.
- Speak and write in sentences.
