

Governors' Details and Register of Interests

In the interests of transparency, all schools and academies should publish up to date details of the structure of the governing board and any committees, together with the names of their governors and their particular roles and responsibilities within that structure. This information is required for each governor who has served at any point over the past 12 months. They should also publish relevant business and pecuniary interests.

Governors are required to report direct and indirect interests:

- Ownership or partnership of a company or organisation which may be used by the school to provide goods or services.
- Goods or services they offer which may be used by the school.
- Any close relationship they have to someone who satisfies either of the above.
- Any close relationship they have to someone who is employed by the school or is within the governance structure.
- Company directorships and/or charity trusteeships.
- Details of any other establishments of which they are a governor, trustee or member.
- Indirect interests where they might benefit by virtue of their relationship with a “connected person”. Any circumstances in which a person stands to benefit, even indirectly, is also an interest that must be recorded.
