Stories through Dance

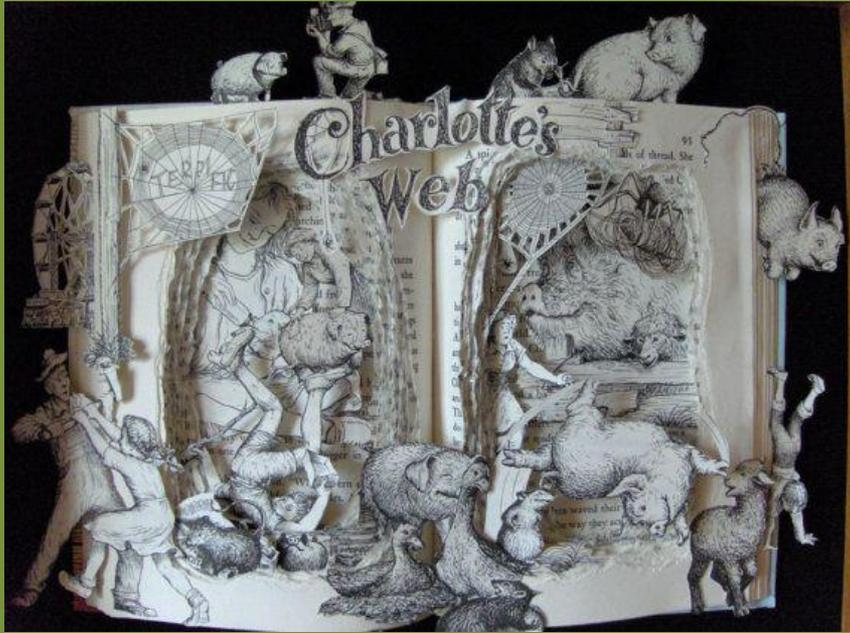

Have you ever listened to a piece of music and created a wonderful story in your head, imaging what is happening throughout and becoming enthused by how the piece might end? Well then this is the course for you.

Each week we will be taking a new piece of music, we will listen and discuss the story behind each piece, before you work collaboratively to make the story into a dance.

By the end of each session you will have composed a dance to perform to the other groups. Each group can then critique your work, allowing you to progress week by week.

Once upon a time...

Do you like reading fairytales?

Do you know the stories of Cinderella, Snow White or the Princess and the Pea?

In this course we are going to read different fairytales. However, there is a twist!

In the magical world of these fairytales, often everything ends well and they 'all live happily ever after'. What if the story didn't end like this? What if the ugly sisters were actually really supportive of Cinderella and wanted to help her? What if the glass slipper didn't fit Cinderella's foot? What if Goldilocks actually ended up in prison for stealing porridge from the bears?

We are going to think about the characters and storyline, mixing, swapping and changing a few things here and there and then we will retell our new stories, obviously beginning with 'Once upon a time...'
