

The World Is Waiting For You

Right outside your window there's a world to explore, ready?

Follow that path around the next bend,

Who knows where it may lead?

Make a splash,

Get a little too wet,

Dive in, sift, scrape,

Go on - get your hands dirty.

Dig deeper. What if? Why not?

Scan the sky and take a leap.

Size things up, get a firm grip,

Then start climbing.

Inside that shell, beyond the foam, beneath the waves,

What's waiting?

Take a peek, go on - get a little nosy,

Poke around for a while,

See where the river takes you,

Then paddle harder, or face the wind and soar,

The whole wide world is waiting for you...

Ready. Set. Go.
